

Journal of Philippine Culture and Society

Volume IV, Number 2 September 2012
Cordillera Studies Center, University of the Philippines Baguio

THE CORDILLERA REVIEW

Journal of Philippine Culture and Society

Volume 4, Number 2

September 2012

Contents

STEPHEN GRIFFITHS Guerrilla Priest: Al Griffiths and the Resistance Movement in Kalinga in World War II /	3
SCOTT MAGKACHI SABOY Voicing Ethnicity: Traditional Referentiality, the Ullalim, and Kalinga Ethnopol /	37
P. BION GRIFFIN AGNES ESTIOKO-GRIFFIN The Centrality of Arrow Crafting and Hunting in the Agta Way-of-Life/	65
IVAN EMIL A. LABAYNE Nation-formation and Historical Continuity in Ricky Lee's Si Amapola sa 65 na Kabanata /	91

THE CORDILLERA REVIEW

Journal of Philippine Culture and Society

BOARD OF EDITORS

DELFIN TOLENTINO, JR., Editor-in-Chief

NARCISA P. CANILAO, Associate Editor

ALIPIO T. GARCIA, Associate Editor

ANNA CHRISTIE V. TORRES, Associate Editor

SANTOS JOSE O. DACANAY III, Managing Editor

Cover: Simon Tuguinay prepares the ritual paraphernalia to be used in the dawat di bagol, a ritual performed during the rice harvest season in the village of Bayninan in Kiangan, Ifugao. The ritual is held to elevate a mumbaki (native shaman) to the higher order of mumbagol, a performer of the high prestige rituals in Ifugao society. Photograph by Analyn Salvador-Amores, 2014.

Cordillera Studies Center
UNIVERSITY OF THE PHILIPPINES BAGUIO
UP Drive, 2600 Baguio City, Philippines
telefax: (6374) 442-5794
e-mail: cordillerareview.upbaguio@up.edu.ph
website: www.upb.edu.ph/~csc

Copyright © 2012 by Cordillera Studies Center, University of the Philippines Baguio

All rights reserved. No part of this publication may be reproduced, stored in a retrieval system, or transmitted in any form or by any means, electronic, mechanical, photocopying, recording, or otherwise, without the written permission of the Publisher.